Learn how to see and think before you create! Seek not to copy the masters but rather seek what they sought. Experience the great museums of Madrid, Barcelona, and Amsterdam with Master Pastelist, Bill Hosner. Enjoy guided tours of 9 of the finest museums in Spain & Holland including: Museo Nacional del Prado, Museu Picasso, Museo Sorolla, Rijksmuseum, and Van Gogh Museum.

Have you ever wanted to visit a museum alongside a master artist? Study what he studies? Ask what he asks himself as he stands in front of a major work of art? Sketch along? Join Master Pastel Painter Bill Hosner as he guides you through these great museums teaching and sketching.

In the summer of 2008, Bill spent 2 weeks in the major museums of Madrid and Amsterdam studying and sketching 6-8 hours per day. Find out why he chose to study the works he did. Listen while Bill discusses a major work and explains what he was looking for; how he began to think new and innovative thoughts about his own work from his study and sketching. The masters have left a trail, a rich tradition, teeming with great information waiting for those who are willing to look harder, examine, and sketch.

Each day, Bill will choose specific works and guide the group to their locations lecturing and then allowing for sketch time for the participants to increase their own knowledge base of painting. In the evenings over tapas and dinner, we will continue our discussions of the art of the day and enjoy the nightlife of Madrid, Barcelona, and Amsterdam.

Puerto del Sol, Bill Hosner
